

Ladies Aid Hold Old-Time Meeting

Costumes and Customs of Bygone
Days Feature Presentation by
St. Alban's Ladies

St. Alban's W. A. presentation of "An Old Time Business Meeting of the Ladies Aid" in the Opera house on Monday evening proved very amusing, and faithfully depicted all the small gossip and tattle to which meetings of this nature are prone to lapse into. The costumes brought to mind fashions of a bygone age, and caused a feeling of thankfulness that women do not garb themselves so grotesquely in these days. Especially good were the two characters who represented the militant suffragettes, (Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Currie), the former's umbrella at times being pointed at a very dangerous angle.

Mrs. M. Clifford and Mrs. F. Graham as the two visitors from Boston, with a superior air, gave a very good impression of the attitude of city folk towards the lesser lights of a small town, while Miss Hilda Clifford as the quibbling wife whose husband was the uppermost thought in her mind brought snickers of derision from the more staid members of the ladies aid to whom a husband was no longer a novelty or a thing to be feared. Mrs. Rippon as the deaf old lady kindly took the part of Mrs. Barrington.

who was absent through sickness, and Miss Olga Hole carried her part as a quiet mannered peace maker in an effective manner, and looked quite becoming in her mid-Victorian costume. Miss Ida Thom and Miss Ivy Snaod, two of the young members of the cast, were prettily attired in their "colonial costumes."

Miss Bessie Dunlop as president carried her part with a decided air of business, though experiencing a hard time to keep the members to the discussion of business, as they all loved to digress on topics ranging from the baby's teeth to the best remedy for Mrs. Cornett's vocal organs, who acted as a lady with very decided opinions.

In the second part a short musical program was given, Mesdames Cornett, Gate, Hlower and Clifford singing "Jusinita" for which they were encored. Mr. Morris, jr., played an eunuchium solo, Douglas Moores a piano solo, Mr. Morris, sr., sang "Grandfather's Clock" and an English folk song, and a minuet was danced by Frue Borden, Olive Brown, Vivian McLeod and Edna Hoggan, these four little girls being appropriately costumed. They also were given an encore.

The directress was Mrs. J. C. Lang, who deserves credit for her painstaking work and the ladies are to be congratulated for the life-like way in which they showed how a ladies meeting is conducted, and also for the time they have spent in their efforts to raise additional revenue for the church.

Fox Caught by Local Man

Jules Ancelot received a surprise on Monday morning when he discovered a fox in a trap which had been placed in his poultry yard to catch prowling coyotes. It was a cross, he states, between a black and a red fox, and had a very fine bushy tail, being apparently full grown. It is the first on record as having been caught for many years in this district.

Prize-winners at the K. of P. whist drive on Saturday were Mrs. J. C. Richards, Mrs. R. Westworth, A. Gillespie and J. Maddison.

Former Coleman Man Wounded

Italian Miner Will Face Charge of Attempted Murder of Desire Mary

(Drumheller Mail)

Eurico Aroffo, an Italian, employed at the Arcadia mine, East Coulees, was remanded until Nov. 7, by Magistrate O'Connor on Tuesday on a charge of attempting to murder Desire Mary, a Belgian miner, who works at the Midland colliery.

The stabbing affray occurred at about eight o'clock on Sunday night following an argument over a debt of five dollars. The two men, who had worked together at Coleman, Alta., met at the home of H. Wall, who resides in the Newcastle flats, and during the evening, the matter of the debt was talked about. As the argument became heated, Mary and Aroffo walked to the door apparently with the intention of settling the argument in a more forceful way. When the two men reached the doorway it is alleged that Aroffo pulled out a knife and ran it into Mary's body just above the heart. Mary lifted his right hand to ward off the blow and by so doing probably saved his life, as the blade slashed his fingers and was deflected from a vital spot.

As the assailant fled, the injured man staggered into the house and collapsed in a chair. He was bleeding profusely and had lapsed into unconsciousness when Dr. Graham and the police arrived on the scene. First aid treatment was given to Mary, and he was rushed to the hospital. On closer examination it was found that although the wounded man had lost a lot of blood, his injuries were not quite as serious as was first believed.

The police conducted an all night search for the wanted man and eventually picked him up at East Coulees on Monday afternoon.

According to a son of the injured man who arrived in town from Calgary on Monday, his father was not involved in the argument, claiming that Aroffo was arguing with a man named Dacheux, but until Mary has recovered sufficiently to make a statement, the reason for the stabbing remains in doubt.

Desire Mary lived for many years on Blairmore road, and moved to Calgary in the early part of this year.

Summit Lodge A. F. & A. M. meets this (Thursday) evening.

Important to Hockey Players

William Chappell of Blairmore, local governor of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, and assistant secretary of Alberta branch, states that applications for amateur cards must be signed by himself, and that it will not be necessary to send to Edmonton, as he has full power to deal with these.

Canada Among the Nations

Canadians of all classes can hardly fail to feel a thrilling pride in the rapid strides forward made by their Dominion in the realm of international affairs. Since that fateful day in 1914, when the world was plunged into war, and Canada at once, and without the slightest hesitation, took its place in the front rank of the Allied hosts, the growth of this country in world estimation and influence, has been one of the remarkable features of the international situation.

Hardly a year has passed without witnessing some new advance step taken, or some noteworthy achievement added to the record, revealing Canada's new and higher status in the councils of the nations.

Candidly, but eloquently, Sir Robert Borden outlined the Dominion's growth in international stature within the short space of the last two years in a memorandum prepared and submitted by him to the Institute of Pacific Relations now in session at Kyoto, Japan. Since 1927, when the Institute last assembled, Canada had adhered to the multilateral pact for the renunciation of war, has given adherence to the optional clause in the statutes of the Permanent Court of International Justice, has exchanged ministers with France and Japan.

Canada, too, has aligned itself whole-heartedly with Premier Ramsay MacDonald and President Hoover in their effort to promote mutual understanding and goodwill between all sections of the English-speaking world, thus paving the way for a larger measure of world disarmament, and making an immensely important advance toward the goal of permanent world peace.

Nor has Canada confined its efforts to the signing of treaties and the making of gestures. When the unfortunate incident of the "Alm Alon" arose, a happening which in days gone by might have precipitated almost immediate war, and certainly a feeling of hostility containing the seeds of future trouble, Canada kept cool, and through the medium of diplomatic correspondence between Ottawa and Washington, a basis of arbitration was quickly and mutually arranged to the satisfaction of both nations. Speaking of this correspondence, Sir Robert says:

"The diplomatic correspondence on the subject between Canada and the United States is admirable in tone, and the questions of fact and law presented are set out lucidly and temperately on each side."

In the Assembly and Council of the League of Nations, Canada's voice is always heard in support of all measures calculated to make for peace. This Dominion is a real leader at Geneva in all efforts to promote international understanding and goodwill, and in the devising of ways and means to remove causes of suspicion and irritation.

Co-incident with the rise of Canada as a factor in international affairs, the foreign trade of the Dominion has increased by leaps and bounds until now this country can boast of the second largest world trade per head of population. Canada's ministers at Washington, Paris and Tokyo, are reinforced in this work of creating international goodwill and prestige for Canada by a large and steadily increasing number of trade commissioners in all parts of the globe.

Canada's strong position can be made stronger through the united sympathy and effort of the Canadian people. Sir Robert Borden, while voting unqualified praise of the anti-war pact, declared that the peace of the world cannot be secured by treaties alone, nor can it be maintained by force. The same foundation which assures ordered liberty and justice in a modern civilized state must be created on an international scale if peace is to endure.

The education and idealism of the people, their inherited respect for law, and their determination to maintain order and justice against crime and lawlessness," Sir Robert said, "are the real foundations upon which stable government rests. In the world there must be an international public opinion upon which will be established between the nations the entrenchment of public right and justice."

Canada, no less than other countries, has everything to gain through the development of such an international public opinion. Only by the maintenance of peace can Canada's great foreign trade continue to prosper and grow. The development of an international public opinion must begin within each national unit and spread through the whole body of humanity.

Canada has that international viewpoint. It is growing stronger, and every true Canadian will exert himself or herself to foster it. It is one of the greatest things in the nation and in the world today.

Commands Atlantic Liner

Ronald Stuart Was First Canadian To Win the Victoria Cross in British Navy

At least one Canadian holder of the coveted Victoria Cross worked his way to England for the Prince of Wales' dinner on Nov. 9, and none can deny that he earned his passage. This is Commander Ronald Stuart, V.C., captain of the Canadian Pacific liner, "Duchess of York," the first Canadian to win the Victoria Cross in the British Navy.

Commander Stuart brought the C.P.R. steamer "Princess Elaine" to the Pacific coast on her maiden voyage last year and was later elevated to command of the crack Atlantic liner which he now sails.

Mother—"Shall we invite the boy next door to your birthday party?" Little Lottie—"I don't think so—he's so good nobody likes him."

Safer To Stand Up

Mussolini Had Amazing Experience At Theatre In Italy

You don't have to believe this, but a gentleman returned from abroad says that an American girl studying Italy went into a moving-picture theatre and suddenly realized that she was sitting just behind none other than Il Duce Mussolini himself. His visit was innocuous, and successfully so, for no one recognized him in the half light of the cinema. He was enjoying everything hugely until, in the midst of a newswear, a portrait of himself in heroic pose was thrown on the screen. The spectators of course, all arose, cheering wildly, all save Mussolini himself, who sat through the demonstration, fidgeting. He had been, obviously, a rather nice point—whether to stand up and risk being recognized honoring himself, or to remain modestly seated. After the excitement was over an old lady lady who had the seat next him leaned over and said: "Signor, that's how we all feel, but it's safer to stand up."

NERVE TORTURES

A Condition From Which Both Men and Women Suffer

Hardly any condition of ill health causes more real suffering than a shattered nervous system. And often, unfortunately, but little sympathy is shown for the sufferer, from the mistaken notion that the nerves can be controlled. Men and women with nerves out of gear often become irritable and are blamed for ill temper, when it is not their fault, but their poor health is the cause. The tired, over-worked wife and mother, whose household cares have been heavy, and the breadwinner whose anxieties have worried him until he is really ill, are among the nervous sufferers who become run-down. Their nerves, like all bodily organs, need rich, red blood in all their cells.

The simplest treatment is a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which enriches the blood and builds up the nervous system and brings good health and cheerfulness. Mrs. M. Cross, Richmond, Que., tells how this medicine ended her nervous troubles. She says: "I have suffered from nervousness and dizzy spells, and the hundred and one things which in such a condition make life a misery. The first thing I found to help me was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Under the use of this medicine I found my nerves grew steeper, the dizzy spells grew less frequent, and I brought brighter and more cheerful. I took the pills for some time and found that they did not hurt my nerves and are a fine medicine for both old and young."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c. a box from "The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Demonstrates New Serum

Young Military Doctor Discovers Substitute For Blood Transfusion

The efficacy of a new serum, which is said to take the place of a blood transfusion, was demonstrated at the Pan Hospital, Paris, where the life of a motor-cyclist was saved after he had been badly hurt in an accident. The serum is the discovery of a young military doctor attached to a branch of the Pasteur Institute, in Hanol, Indo-China.

Before the serum was tried on human beings, experiments were conducted in Paris at the Pasteur Institute. The serum was injected into a dog from which most of the blood had been drained, and the animal immediately revived and took food. The motorcyclist was successfully treated when he had already lost two quarts of blood.

The Union of South Africa, in 1921 had a white population of 1,500,000 against 5,000,000 blacks.

Not long ago a British aviator went out and flew a seaplane at a speed of 368 miles an hour. That was the fastest time ever made by any kind of vehicle capable of carrying a human being.

It must be admitted that when the Old Country people set out to make fast time they are in a hurry. It is quite erroneous to harbor the opinion that they are slow. They have a leisurely way in certain affairs, but in others they are speedy.

American Tribute To Ramsay MacDonald

New York Paper, Makes Kindly Reference To His Sincerity Of Purpose

Though he modestly puts away the personal aspect of it, it has been a distinct triumph for Ramsay MacDonald, the man. His bearing has been perfect. Not one slip in act or speech did he make while he was here. Deeply impressive has been his abiding sense of the high mission on which he came, and which he hopes will lead to all-embracing benefits throughout the entire world. His eloquence has been one of elevation of mind and nobility of purpose. On divers strings he has sounded the one clear note of a passion to secure established peace on earth through every reasonable and honorable means. Such speaking as his, coming to a climax as it did in his magnificent address on Friday night, has seldom been heard in any country from the lips of a citizen of another—New York Times.

It is expected that further improvements along this line will be part of the fall building programme.

Cost Of Keeping Clean

Ten Cents Of Every Dollar Goes Toward Banishing Dirt Says Statistician

Ten cents of every dollar spent by the average American family is for the purpose of keeping clean, a survey of this little discussed phase of daily life by Ronald Millar, New York statistician, shows.

Basing his calculations upon a family of four, Millar, in The American Magazine, estimates that $1,000 a year is the least price of cleanliness that can be quoted. Of this amount $469.35 is the minimum yearly total for personal and household cleanliness; $485 for the services of cleaners whether employed directly or indirectly, and $72.80 for civic cleanliness.

In personal household cleanliness the statistician includes soap, polishes, shaving equipment and materials, hot water for washing or bathing, haircuts for husband only, toothbrushes and dentifrices, handkerchiefs, towels, linen and power or up-keep for whatever cleaning devices that may be used. The housewife is granted, under the second group, 85 cents an hour at the rate of two hours a day for 300 days in the year. Whether or not she receives any actual pay, the work is still chargeable since it is time which any woman might employ for cash profit. Likewise, says Millar, the cleaning of railway cars, automobiles and even the grooming of 19,000,000 horses that still exist in the country, ultimately becomes a charge upon the individual.

"Food and shelter lead in the cost of living," says Millar, "but the cost of cleanliness is higher than that of clothes, education amusements, owning an automobile and many other things that figure more prominently in the household budget."

An Oil For All Men.—The sailor, the soldier, the fisherman, the lumberman, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicines and be amongst those taken on a journey.

The City Of Parks

The Moose Jaw Optimist—organ of the young men's section of the Board of Trade—has awarded to the thriving town in question the title of "The City Of Parks," and mentions, incidentally, that there were 40,000 visitors to the Moose Jaw Annual Fair since May, not including the 5,000 present at the Indian Pageant.

Minard's Liniment relieves stiffness.

Watch the Lanterns

The Farmer's Advocate says: As the days shorten the lantern comes into use in choring, night and morning. Plenty of hooks should be provided, and wires as well, along which the lantern may slide. Carelessness with the lantern has resulted in many disastrous fires.

Poultry Fowl Grows

Membership in the Manitoba Co-operative Poultry Marketing Association Ltd., Hartney, Man., has increased during its seven years of life from 1,000 to 11,000.

Needless Suffering

The next time a headache makes you stay at home—

Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement—Remember Aspirin! For there is scarcely any sort of pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To colds that might so easily be checked; neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

You need not hesitate to take Aspirin. It is safe. It is always the same. It never depresses the heart, so use it as often as needed; but the same of any pain can be treated only by a doctor.

LIQUOR CONTROL FAVORED BY VOTE IN NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax.—In a plebiscite on the liquor question the number of Nova Scotia voters who expressed a preference for government control and sale exceeded by more than 28,000 the number of those who indicated their desire that the present prohibition law be kept.

Both Dr. H. R. Grant, leader of the prohibition forces, and J. H. Winslow, leading the government control campaign, interpreted the figures as indicative of the defeat of the prohibition law.

Two questions were before the voters but thousands voted on only one. The questions were whether the prohibition law, known as the Nova Scotia temperance act, should be continued or whether a system of government sale should be set up.

With only 45 small polls unheard from out of a total of 1,137, the figures were:

For the temperance act, 61,672.
Against, 56,024.
For government control, 89,757.
Against, 41,180.

The vote will be interpreted officially by the government.

Premier E. M. Rhodes said he would wait for more complete information before making a statement.

Only Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island of the provinces of Canada now have prohibition laws.

Writ Has Been Issued

General Higgins Asks Transfer Of Salvation Army Property

London, Eng.—A writ on behalf of General Higgins, the new commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, asking for transfer to himself of army property now held in the names of the executors of the late General Bramwell Booth has been issued.

The writ was served immediately on General Booth's executors, Mrs. Booth, Commissioner Catherine Booth, his daughter and a solicitor, Smith. The situation at present is that while all property of the army in Great Britain is controlled by General Higgins, its ownership remains in the hands of General Booth's executors.

An All-Canadian Menu

Food From Every Province Will Be Feature At Winter Fair

Ottawa.—A menu featuring foods gathered from coast to coast will be a feature, arranged by the agriculture department for the opening of the National Winter Fair at Toronto, on November 20.

There will be oysters from Prince Edward Island, fish from Nova Scotia, maple syrup from Quebec, beef from the west, fruit from Ontario and British Columbia—a little something from each and every province to suit the epicurean tastes of the gentlemen.

Will Erect Modern Elevators For Crop

France To Have Up-To-Date Facilities For Handling Wheat

Coulommiers, France.—France is to have a modern system of grain elevators. Strange as it may seem, there are not few elevators in France, and most of those that are modern are at the ports.

France's wheat crop is stored rather haphazardly. Jean Hennessey, Minister of Agriculture, told a congress of farmers here that the government would help to build modern up-to-date elevators to handle 30,000 bushels, a tenth of this year's harvest.

Plan Pacific Air Liners

Monster Dirigibles To Operate Between California and the Philippines

Akron, Ohio.—Two monster dirigibles, the largest in the world, are to be constructed and placed in regular operation between Southern California and the Philippines. In 1933, by the Pacific Zeppelin Transport Co., according to Paul W. Litchfield, chairman of the board. The Pacific liners will carry 80 passengers and tons of mail, express and freight. They will cut in half the crossing time now made by the fastest boats.

Canadians Are Defined

Dominion Statistician Settles Controversy Of Long Standing

Ottawa, Ont.—Every one of Canadian nationality is a Canadian; every one born in the Dominion is of Canadian birth; and every one whose family has been of three generations residence or more in Canada is a Canadian "in a special sense," according to a report issued by R. H. Coates, Dominion statistician.

The report would seem to settle a controversy of long duration as to just what constitutes "a Canadian."

New Position For Dr. Gunn

Victoria.—Dr. W. R. Gunn, at present identified with the health of animal section of the Federal Department of Agriculture with headquarters in Toronto, has been appointed livestock commissioner for British Columbia, according to announcement of the provincial minister of agriculture, Hon. W. Atkinson. Dr. Gunn will assume his new duties on December 1.

Leaves Wheat Pool

Winnipeg.—E. B. Ramsay officially leaves the post of general manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers and takes over the chairmanship of the Board of Railway Commissioners. No successor to Mr. Ramsay has been appointed. He will continue to act in an advisory capacity on any matters which have come up during his tenure of office.

Dunning Will Come West

Ottawa, Ont.—Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Railways, will join Premier Mackenzie King on the latter part of his western tour and return with him to Ottawa. Mr. Dunning will meet Mr. King at Regina, when the prime minister is returning, and will be present at the various meetings held on the eastward journey.

VICTORY FOR FERGUSON FORCES IN ONTARIO

Toronto.—Premier G. Howard Ferguson, with his Conservative government intact and a greatly increased army of supporters, is now more solidly entrenched as the dominant political force in the province of Ontario.

Their ranks shattered by the defeats inflicted by the Conservatives in rural strongholds they regarded as invulnerable, only a corporal's guard of opposition strength will face the government when the legislative assembly, the 18th in the history of the province, convenes to enact the legislation for a greater Ontario, on which Premier Ferguson based his appeal to the people.

In giving the Ferguson government a mandate to administer the affairs for a third successive term, the people of Ontario gave the administration the strongest legislative representation ever accorded a government in the province.

The sweeping victory which exceeded the hopes of the most optimistic government supporters was a ringing answer to the prime minister's declaration that he was willing to stake his political life on the government's policy of control and sale of liquor by the government—the issue on which he was returned to power in the 1926 general election.

The standing as compared with the 1926 election follows:

Party	1929	1926
Conservatives	93	77
Liberals	9	21
Progressives	3	11
U. F. O.	1	13
Ind. Conservatives	1	0
Liberals-Progressives	1	0
Deferred	1	0

Total

The landslide that swept the Ferguson government into power with at least 93 supporters in a house of 112 members carried down to defeat with it J. G. Leithbridge, the 74-year-old Progressive party leader who waged a hard fight in West Middlesex, which he had represented since 1919. He lost the seat in a three-cornered contest to Dr. L. W. Freese, the Conservative candidate by the slim minority of 39 votes.

W. E. N. Sinclair, K.C., the Liberal leader, saw his forces, which numbered 21 in the last house, dwindle to nine. He was re-elected in Ontario South, but his majority of more than 2,000 in the 1926 election was cut down to a bare 1,000.

Submarine Sets Depth Mark

Spezia, Italy.—The Italian submarine "Tito Speri," 830 tons, submerged to the extraordinary depth of 343 feet in tests and remained there 20 minutes. Experimental hydro-phonetic communication was carried on from the depth with the submarine "Sesela" on the surface.

FAMOUS WOMAN EXPLORER

Lady Richmond Brown, distinguished woman explorer, who has arrived in New York from England. In January she leaves for the wild again at the head of an American-Indian expedition, with which Mr. M. Mitchell Hedges, famous explorer, will be connected. She was with Mr. Hedges when his party discovered the Chukchee Indians in a hitherto totally unknown part of Panama.

Edmonton Students Hear Unusual Lecture

Former German Officer Gives Address At Edmonton Military Academy

Edmonton, Alta.—With a former commander in the Imperial German navy relating his own experiences in the battle of Jutland, famous naval encounter of the world war, the Edmonton military academy heard an unusual lecture here.

Erich Alweid, who fought as a German officer in all the major naval engagements of the war, and to whom address the academy listened, came to Alberta two years ago, and is now a progressive farmer in the Brightbank district.

Albertian Wins Huge Sum

Quebec.—George Kowalchuk, of Hackett, Alberta, and James Westcott, of Springfield, Mass., won the first two prizes each amounting to $79,399.50 in the Army and Navy Veterans' sweepstake on the Cambridge race at Newmarket, England. The sweep was arranged so that each horse was drawn by two ticket holders. Both of these men drew Double Life.

Arab Boycott In Jerusalem

Jerusalem.—Two hundred Jewish shopkeepers of the old city submitted a memorandum to the high commissioner, Sir John Chancellor, declaring that an organized Arab boycott of Jews was still going on. Arab pickets were said to be watching the entrance of Jewish shops destroying all goods purchased there by Arabs.

Favorite Star Goes C.P.R.

Travelling from Winnipeg to Montreal by Imperial Limited, crack Canadian Pacific Flyer, Colleen Moore, smiling Irish actress, opened her eyes to more than average wideness as she got her first glimpses of the prairies and the East from the luxurious compartment of a Canadian Pacific train de luxe. She told interviewers that she had been in a condition of amazement all through her trip and the word "wonderful" was continually on her lips. She is shown here stepping from the train at the Windsor Street station, Montreal, just before receiving an ovation from her countless admirers who gathered at the depot and later at the theatre where she appeared in person.

May Abolish Capital Punishment

Question Is Now An Issue In British House Of Commons

London, Eng.—The House of Commons adopted an amendment for appointment of a committee to report on the possibility of abolition of capital punishment.

When debate opened on a private member's resolution for abolition of the death penalty, Right Hon. John P. Clynes, secretary for home affairs, expressed government sympathy with the idea, but said the question of an alternative to such punishment was the rock on which all projects for abolition had split.

He agreed with the amendment finally adopted for study of the matter, which he hoped might lead to some practical result. In the course of the discussion Lady Astor expressed great disappointment in the attitude of the minister. She had broken a ten-year custom earlier today by appearing at the afternoon session without a hat as most of the other women have done regularly.

Solved His Problem

Immigrant Out Of Work Broke Window To Get Jail Term

Saskatoon, Sask.—Falling in his search for employment during the past month and being without friends in this country, Joseph G. Jackson, immigrant, solved his part of the unemployment problem by throwing a brick through the plate glass window of the government liquor store on Third Avenue.

The crash of the glass evidently went unnoticed at the time so Jackson hunted up a sergeant of the police and told his story, and was taken to the cells. In police court he admitted his guilt and stated that he fully expected to go to jail, and was not disappointed for Magistrate Brown sentenced him to six months in Prince Albert.

Received News By Radio

And V.C. Holder In Isolated Settlement Will Attend Prince's Dinner

Winnipeg.—Word of the Prince of Wales' dinner to be given November 9, in honor of all those who won the Victoria Cross, trickled into a little settlement 100 miles from Salmon Arm, B.C., recently. Major J. McGregor, stationed at the little settlement, received the news over the radio.

Major McGregor, whose valor on the field of battle while serving with the 2nd Canadian Rifles, earned him the V.C., lost no time in setting out on a hurried trip to New York from where he sailed on the S.S. Olympic for London. He raced 100 miles by auto to the railway station at Salmon Arm, where he arrived only fifteen minutes before his train left.

DOMINION STATUS FOR INDIA WILL BE CONSIDERED

London, Eng.—A London newspaper published what purports to be a summary of the report of the Indian central committee, appointed under Sir Nankaran Mal, from members of the Indian legislature, to work in co-operation with the Simon commission on statutory reform. The commission has concluded its work after a month in London, and is ready to submit a unanimous report to the viceroy of India, with whom lies discretion regarding publication.

The newspaper report, however, suggests the committee practically recommends something like Dominion status for India and full autonomy for the provinces.

The newspaper continues that the report recommends formation of an Indian privy council under the chairmanship of the viceroy. It demands that the Indian parliament be given greater control of the army votes, and expresses the opinion that India, if left free, would desire to recruit its police service largely from England, but that India would be able to maintain her own judicial service. Delhi, India.—Viceroy Lord Leroy was said today to intend to issue a proclamation which will deal with the question of Dominion status for India, and announce the summoning of a conference in London to discuss the future constitutional development of India.

It was assumed that pending the decision of the British government in regard to recommendations that may be made by the Simon commission, the proclamation will make no distinct promise which will indicate the policy of Great Britain.

CANADA OFF GOLD STANDARD FOR SOME MONTHS

Montreal.—The Montreal Star says that "because of the stringency which has existed in Canada for money and in order to protect Canada's position Canada has been temporarily off the gold standard for the past six months. At the verbal request of the Minister of Finance, the banks have refrained from shipping gold, although Canada's money has been at a discount which made it profitable to ship gold to New York.

"Although the condition has been in existence for some time it was not generally known that the finance minister of the Dominion had taken the step which investigation now shows that he had. The situation is one which is regarded as being extremely acute although it is believed that the condition will right itself in the ordinary course of events.

"In acting as he did, the finance minister was assuming unusual powers for the purpose. Although the practice was to ship gold under the circumstances, Ottawa acted in order that the gold situation of the country might be maintained during a period of abnormal strain.

"The situation is one which is regarded by financiers and economists alike as being extremely acute and conclusions should not be arrived at hastily. When the move was made to place an embargo upon gold, some six months ago, Canadian banking officials were frightened by the prospect of private manipulation using American money and demanding gold of the Canadian government.

"The entire financial structure of the Dominion would have been gravely endangered if the finance minister had been placed in the position where he would have been forced to refuse gold in redemption of Dominion currency. The huge profits which could have been made by the transfer of gold have been disregarded by those who were in a position to take advantage of the situation.

"The normal results of the crash in the New York Stock Exchange and other exchanges throughout the world will bring about an alleviation of the demand for New York funds. The drastic reduction expected in funds on call in New York will be one of the main factors in bringing about a substantial betterment in the Canadian dollar," the paper concludes.

Destroyers Ordered To China

U.S. Division Intended To Remain At Manila Several Months

Manila.—Orders despatching the 16th destroyer division immediately to China waters, "in view of a possible need there," were received at Manila, where the fleet was.

The destroyers arrived here recently for the navy day celebration, and had apparently intended remaining for some months.

Naval officials were reluctant to discuss the order returning the destroyer fleet to China, whence it had just returned.

Chairman Of Chicago Firm Guarantees Stock Market Account

Chicago, Ill.—In a copyrighted article, the Herald Examiner said that Julius Rosenwald, chairman of the Board of Sears-Roebuck and Company has guaranteed the stock market accounts of the more than 40,000 employees of the company.

He has pledged his personal fortune of millions of dollars to prevent any employee facing the danger of having his savings swept away, the story said.

Terminal Bins Again Full

Winnipeg.—By a forward bound of one-third of a million bushels in 24 hours, grain storage at the head of the lakes, Oct. 30, stood at a new high mark for the season. A total of 75,007 bushels were packed into the high-piled bins—200,000 bushels more than at any time since the movement of 1929 grains began.

Russians Condemned To Death Moscow.—According to despatches of the Tass News Agency, twelve Russians were condemned to death in various parts of the country for crimes that ranged from murder and arson to anti-Soviet agitation. They included two priests, one Mullah and four rich peasants.

Act May Be Amended

Ottawa.—The next session of parliament may see amendments to the insurance act covering the investment of insurance companies in common stocks. It was learned here.

London, Eng.—The keel of Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenger for the American Yacht Cup, Shamrock V, was laid at the Camper and Nicholson's yard at Gosport without ceremony.

Sir Thomas was not present. The yacht will be built to a 76-foot rating under the New York Club rules and will be fitted with a motor. The rig will be the same as that of the defender of the cup, thus promising a stirring contest for supremacy.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

People love to talk. With some conversation is educational; with others the chief subject of conversation is mostly tattle. But people will talk, no matter if they live in a small town or a large city. In the cities as a rule the talkative people are given the additional facility of spilling to whoever cares to listen by being allowed the privilege of standing on a soap box in a park or other prominent places and talking as long as they desire, provided they do not utter seditious or libellous or slanderous statements. It serves as a safety valve for those who think they have a mission to mankind. There is a great deal to be said in defence of the right of free speech, but there is no defence for those who engage in a whispering campaign, for they often besmirch the fair name of innocent people.

Dare to express your opinion on matters of public interest in words that are more than mere "mush," and somebody will arise and try and crucify you. The editor of the Drumheller Mail has written an article which appeared in the McGill News, a university publication. It was entitled "Cultural Development in the Wild and Woolly," and was favorably commented on by daily newspapers. But because it told the unvarnished truth of some phases of Drumheller's life in recent years, with the object in view presumably of creating a desire for cultural improvement, a wolf in sheep's clothing starts a campaign to discredit the writer. Again illustrating ancient history in which the Pharisees crucified the greatest Christian the world has seen, because he would pander to no man.

The Cranbrook Courier says: "If you cannot get enthusiastic about your work, it's time to get alarmed. Something is wrong. Compete with yourself; set your teeth and dive into the job of breaking your own record. No man keeps up his enthusiasm automatically. Enthusiasm must be nourished with new actions, new inspirations, new efforts, new vision. It is one's own fault if his enthusiasm is gone; he has failed to feed it. And right here is the big reason why thousands of men hit high-water mark at thirty-five and then recede. They can "do their work with their eyes shut," and that is the way they do it. They have lost the driving power of enthusiasm. They sleep at the switch. All they see in life is the face of the time clock. All they hear is the quitting whistle. If you want to turn hours into minutes, renew your enthusiasm."

Immediate action is required if Coleman is to have a hockey team this winter. A very good aggregation was organized last year which made a splendid showing in the intermediate league, working its way into the semi-finals for the province. So far there has been no action taken to wards re opening the rink, and the players are looking for positions on other teams. Many are desirous of seeing the national game maintained in Coleman, and it is hoped that some enthusiasts will step forward with suggestions regarding the operation of the rink. It can be done!

The Boy Scout movement is deserving of the encouragement of all parents who have boys, and it is pleasing to note that a meeting is to be held next week to re-organize. The recent jamboree in England demonstrated the extent to which this movement has spread in many countries since it was founded 21 years ago by General Sir Baden Powell, the hero of the Siege of Mafeking in the South African War of 1899-1902. It is not to make soldiers of the boys, but to inculcate habits of discipline and good citizenship. The good feeling promoted among the boys of the world, no matter what their nationality may be, will go a great length towards eliminating racial enmities. It gives boys the sense of pride and teaches them to do a good turn every day. It is hoped that the efforts of those sponsoring the Scout movement will be given hearty support by Coleman people.

G. G. Coote, M.P., recently addressed a meeting of his constituents at High River. He is reported to have given an account of his stewardship as a U.F.A. candidate, and to have pointed out some of the faults of the Liberals and Conservatives. The third party in Federal politics assumed considerable importance nine or ten years ago, and to a considerable extent in provincial politics throughout Canada. But of late years it has shown a decline. In the United Kingdom, the third party, as represented by the Independent Labor Party, gradually acquired support until it secured the reins of government. Conditions are so entirely different in Canada that it does not seem that men will stay away from the older parties sufficiently long to develop a third party of any strength in politics.

In both theory and practice I conceive of education in its largest sense, namely, as of the calling forth and training of all the physical, moral, intellectual and spiritual faculties. This was the life scope given to education by the Greeks, and some may think that we have outlived the Greek conception of the word.—Henry Fairfield Osborn.

SYNOPSIS

Al Stone, singing waiter at Blackie Joe's New York night club wins fame as a composer of popular songs. He marries Molly Winton, a ballad singer, and makes her famous, too. When their baby, Junior, is about two years old, Molly, fed up with John Perry, Al's best friend, taking the child a week later, Al learns she is at a New York hotel, ready to sail for France that afternoon. He calls her on the phone and begs for the chance to say goodbye to Junior. Molly consents, so Junior is taken to the park entrance. It is a tragic farewell, for Al adores his baby, Junior, says, "Do you feel bad, daddy?"

CHAPTER XX.

"I'm all right, Junior," said Al. "No, I don't feel bad. I'm just awfully happy to see you. I'll tell you something—you're going far away to another place, a great big boat. Take care of mother and don't let anything happen to her. Be good to her. And remember—you'll see daddy again; we must both wait for that time."

In the distance the nurse-maid was consulting the chauffeur as to the time. He looked at his watch and decided they should be getting back to the hotel. Al looked up to see the severe-faced nurse standing before him.

"I'm sorry," she said firmly, "but it's time for the young gentleman to return to his mother."

Junior turned on her quickly. "But I don't want to go."

The nurse tried to smile, but Junior continued with baby sterness. "If you take me away so soon I won't like you."

Al rose, gathering Junior in his arms. "Sh-h—Junior, it isn't nurse's fault that you have to go. You must be a good boy, every way, every day." Then Al turned to the nurse. "I'll bring him over to the car. Will you please go on ahead?"

The nurse preceded the child, while Al made that one hundred-foot walk to the car last as long as possible. Would this really be the last time he ever saw Junior? Perhaps not, but it was quite possible that Junior would be a strapping youngster the next time they came together. If so his adorable baby sayings and his sense of baby gaby would be gone. His sweet, confiding ways would be replaced by a boyish self-sufficiency. He might even forget his father entirely.

These thoughts travelled like burning darts through Al's mind, was it humanly possible for him to give up this little bundle of humanity? Could he live afterward? And then came the thought—take Junior by force, jump into taxi and drive off with him. For a moment this idea percolated with startling intensity. It would be so easy, and he would be justified in doing it!

But, no, Al just couldn't do it—he was not a just that way. He was kind, generous, chivalrous. He loved Molly in spite of what she had done to him, and he knew she

He took note of the fact that it stood beside a small, bare oak tree with a curiously gnarled trunk.

The winter day was darkening already; nurses from the fashionable houses along the Avenue were bringing home their baby charges who had been playing all afternoon in the park. There was a procession of them—babies in perambulators, little tots of two, three and four, carried in their nurse's arms or trotting along beside the women. Many were dressed similarly to Junior, some looked very like him. And Al stood, slightly away from the sidewalk, peering eagerly into the little faces, listening to the chatter and childish laughter. These youngsters—they were going home to happy nurseries, to fathers and mothers who loved them and were united.

How uncanny it was, thought Al, that this procession of babies passed him just at this time, when he had lost Junior. He stood like a statue until long after the last youngster had disappeared and the last remonstrating tone of the chattering French nurses had died away. Then he turned south to leave the city's skyscrapers, already ablaze with light in the distance. Skyscraper apartments—home-reaching into the cold blue winter evening sky! Everything he saw brought comparisons emphasizing the pain of his loss.

He walked slowly, asking himself—Where was he going? Back to the apartment where Celeste, the maid, waited with plying eyes, back to Junior's nursery? No, he couldn't do that. He must tell Celeste tomorrow that he was giving up the apartment. He would go to a hotel to live.

But what were his plans? He must have plans, something to engage his interest, or he would go crazy with the pain of his loss. That was Al's big problem at the moment, and he knew it. Without plans he would be continually whirling in an emotional chaos.

He had plenty of money—that didn't worry him. And he knew that Molly had salted away everything she had earned as a revue singer. She was simply able to provide for Junior. Besides, John Perry had made himself rich as a booze racketeer. No, the money angle could be set aside.

HOW TO RELIEVE CHILDREN'S COLDS

Avoid Serious Results By Using Baby's Own Tablets

When a child shows the first symptoms of a cold, such as redness of the eyes, dogged or running nose, prompt measures for relief may avert serious results. Mothers should always have on hand some simple safe and effective remedy for immediate use. Baby's Own Tablets act quickly, contain no opiates or narcotics, are harmless and harmless. Concomitantly, the student orators of Canada, won the highest international honors in competition with eight others before members of the diplomatic corps and an audience of about 8,000 in Constitutional Hall at Washington. Herbert Shaumann, of Germany, was second, and Roberto Ortiz, Mexico, third.

Pinard took as the subject of his address "Canada among the nations" and his address and the manner of his delivery in the French tongue was adjudged the best among those made by the youths of England, the United States, France, Germany, Denmark, Mexico, Cuba and Peru.

Worms, by the irritation they cause in the stomach and intestines, deprive infants of the nourishment that they should derive from food, and malnutrition is the result. Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutrition of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

Trade Within Empire

Canada Willing and Anxious To Extend Trade With Great Britain

Cables from Liverpool report the Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, former Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs, as saying that the whole atmosphere in Canada was favorable towards doing business with Great Britain and the rest of the Empire—more so than at any time in the past. "She is in extremely good shape, indeed," he said, "with a steady all-round development."

A Clever Goose

A bright light of the goose world, in England, is Jimmy, a goose owned by a South Essex miller. Leaping through a hoop, washing his face, toe dancing and jumping over his owner's arm are some of the tricks he boasts of. He performs all his stunts sitting in a high chair at the table and his manners are said to be perfect. He also stands at attention and salutes whenever the national anthem is played.

A Law-Abiding Nation

English Obey Law and Support Authorities In Enforcing Same

No nation, not even the German, is more law-abiding than the English. Not only does the individual obey the law, but he supports the authorities in enforcing obedience on his neighbor.

"Not only is the criminal class in England small, and to judge by the latest criminal statistics, diminishing, but the criminal himself shares with his more respectable neighbors the law-abiding instinct of the race," writes Geoffrey Layman, in the November Harper's Magazine.

"The safe-breaker," surprised in the midst of his nefarious operations by the solitary policeman on his hands or anywhere about the person of a policeman, although I know that it is there. There is a recognized etiquette in these matters. If the safe-breaker or burglar can finish his job and get away unseen, the trick is his; but if he is so clumsy as to allow the policeman to come upon him unawares, he murmurs 'it's a fair cop, gov'ner' and submits. No English policeman, unless he is on plain clothes duty, or on some very rare occasion when there is strong probability that he will be met, almost certainly by aliens, with violent and murderous resistance, is ever armed with any weapon more lethal than a truncheon; and it is very rarely, and usually only in street rows, that he has occasion to use even that. He has no need for anything more."

THEY SAY

Cow Clipping Pays!

A CERTAIN farmer wanted the facts about clipping cows so he wrote out for himself a list of those owning clipping machines. He wrote them, but he himself so pleased with the Stewart clipping machine he sent the letters which made him decide the clipping machine is a good investment. Here are some of them:

Vankle Hill. "I think a clipping machine is a sound investment. Paying for itself—yes, ten times its price in one clipping. Why?

Because it saves the time and nuisance and naturally it takes less feed to keep cattle in good condition."

Brownmanville. "It is the easiest way to keep cows clean. With the old hair off the lice do not bother. A farmer cannot afford to keep cows and not clip them, is my experience."

Tavistock. "It certainly reduces bacteria. It is a good investment. It keeps down all the dirt and the milk keeps a lot better."

Aylmer. "We have clipped our cows for the last ten or twelve years. It sure does away with the lice and when you get rid of the lice the cows milk a lot better. It not only keeps the manure from clogging to their hams, but when the udder is clipped dirt don't stick to it and is less in the milk. The cows look a lot better to sell."

HOW TO CLIP COWS. Measure the principal source of bacteria, outside collect and at milking time rub off into the soil if hair is not clipped short. Glands and tail is kept clipped short all winter.

See some to congregate along the udder, which explains why some farmers clip a six inch width from tail to ears.

Farmers who have warm stables and drinking water inside, usually clip their cows all over in the fall.

Buy a clipping machine and make more money from your cows—with less loss.

Stewart No. 1 Clipping Machine is best and when you can clip with it. Strong, sturdy, easy-running and will last for years.

Holland Builds Largest Locks

Third Longer and Half as Wide Again As Panama Canal Locks

The most important of the numerous canals in Holland is that which since 1876 has connected Amsterdam, Holland's second seaport with the ocean. With the gradual increase in the size of the ocean-going vessels, says the Netherlands News Bureau, this canal had to be widened and deepened until at present it belongs, according to its dimensions, to the same class of large, internationally known artificial waterways as the Panama and Suez Canals. The North Sea canal has only one set of locks. These separate the turbulent waters of the North Sea from the calm, unruffled surface of the waterway and the many neighboring smaller canals and ditches. The locks are located at the coast near the town of IJmuiden, one of the important fishing centers of Holland.

As the canal has grown, so have the locks. Those in use at the present time admit ships of about 20,000 registered tons to enter the canal and thus reach Amsterdam. The ever increasing tonnage, especially of the modern liners, made imperative the construction of new locks which would be able to accommodate ocean vessels of any size. The locks have been under construction for a number of years and are expected to be ready early in September.

They will be the largest locks in the world; in length they exceed the locks of the Panama Canal by one-third, in width by one half. The largest ships afloat, the Leviathan and the Majestic, will be able to pass these locks without any difficulty. The preliminary depth of thirty-eight feet will give to the canal a profile with an area of about 14,000 square feet. This is more than the Suez Canal and a little less than the Panama Canal.

The gates were nearly 1,200 tons each. They are opened by rolling them back into recesses of exactly their size in the north wall. As no dry dock is available in the neighborhood which could accommodate the gates in case of necessary repairs the masses had to be fixed up as dry docks. There are two gates in the western end of the lock chamber, one of which can be used as a reserve lock to replace either of the other two. The lock chamber can be filled of lock with seven minutes.

When the tide is very high it will take a little longer. The whole lock is operated electrically.

Test Was Successful

New German Device Drives Car By Liquid Gas

A new type of automobile, with liquid gas as the propelling agent, has been successfully tested at Essen, Germany, by Max Valier, the inventor.

The car was set in motion by the force of the hot sputtering escaping gas from three steel tubes attached to the rear of the driver's seat. Speed and halting the car was controlled by opening and closing the escape valves.

The car reached a top speed of about 37 miles an hour, but the inventor said that with perfection of the method he expects vehicles to surpass all speed records, and predicted that the method would revolutionize the motive power for airplanes.

Canada's Grain Grading System

Is Regarded By Wheat Buying Countries To Be Best In The World

More than 90 per cent. of the wheat crop of Canada this year comes within the statutory grades. Leading agriculturists agree that its protein content averages 14 per cent. though there is some that runs as high as 19 per cent. While not wholly perfect Canada's grain grading system is regarded by the principal wheat buying countries to be the best in the world, according to the Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture, of the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, who was a member of the commission which toured Canada taking evidence regarding the marketing and handling of the wheat produced in the Dominion.

And the difference of the one and the other is the difference between a man trying to push a train of cars up grade by his single puny strength, and the same man on a locomotive with the steam up, moving the whole mass by a turn of the wrist.
